

Since 1992 our Institute stands for professional competence, quality and reliability in the fields of pollution control and environmental measuring technology.

Our company is accredited after DIN EN ISO/IEC 17025. To meet the high quality standards we work according to our quality management system. Our foci are:

- environmental measurements
- environmental engineering
- research and development
- assessment environmental compatibility
- permit procedure for environment
- prediction and atmospheric dispersion modelling for further details see our variety of services or our brochure .